

AP English Language Exam FRQ 3 Planning Organizer

What is the central issue of the prompt?

--

What are the two opposing positions that can be argued?

--	--

How can you state your own position clearly while acknowledging the validity of other views?

--

What reasons support your position (or validity of other views)? What evidence could you use to support each reason?

(1)
(2)
(3)

What is the central issue of the prompt?

--

What are the two opposing positions that can be argued?

--	--

How can you state your own position clearly while acknowledging the validity of other views?

--

What reasons support your position (or validity of other views)? What evidence could you use to support each reason?

(1)
(2)
(3)

What is the central issue of the prompt?

--

What are the two opposing positions that can be argued?

--	--

How can you state your own position clearly while acknowledging the validity of other views?

--

What reasons support your position (or validity of other views)? What evidence could you use to support each reason?

(1)
(2)
(3)

What is the central issue of the prompt?

--

What are the two opposing positions that can be argued?

--	--

How can you state your own position clearly while acknowledging the validity of other views?

--

What reasons support your position (or validity of other views)? What evidence could you use to support each reason?

(1)
(2)
(3)