

Names: _____ Date: _____ SAT Preparation:
Vocabulary Am-As and Subject-Verb Agreement

Directions: Compose sentences using at least 10 of your new vocabulary words in contextually accurate ways. You must use each of the following types of sentences constructions, which regularly appear on the SAT identifying sentence errors section.

1. Each of the children has curly hair.
2. Every one of Ida's fingernails is painted electric blue.
3. One of the werewolves shaves with a Super Gillette double-blade razor.
4. A bag of sausages, together with a canned ham, always makes a lovely wedding gift.
5. Horatio, along with several of his friends, suffers from ingrown toenails.
6. Either a demented mole or a jumbo earthworm is digging holes in the garden.
7. Neither Bubba nor his brother Joe trims his nose hair.
8. Neither of the space aliens needs glasses.
9. Marvin and Reginald regularly use Super Glue to style their hair.
10. Marvin or Reginald, I can't remember which, regularly uses Super Glue to style his hair.