SAT Preparation

Part I: Compose three cartoons (each with a minimum of three frames) using at least 9 of your 15 new vocabulary words (lists As-Ba) in a logical way to create an understandable story. Underline each of the words and use them correctly in context, either in characters' speech, characters' thoughts, captions, or titles.

Title: _____

Part II: Compose a dialogue using the six new SAT vocabulary that you did not use in Part I. Underline each of the words and use them correctly in context. Make sure that the sentences you compose include clear context clues to reveal each vocabulary word's meaning; circle the context clue(s).

Example:

Sarah: I'm going to the party incognito to spy on my boyfriend. My disguise will be great.

Jennifer: He'll be cognizant that you're there! It's impossible to hide that red hair of yours, so he'll be aware of your presence!

Sarah: I'll wear a wig and feign a foreign accent. He'll never even notice me if I'm pretending to be someone else.

Part III: Create four SAT multiple-choice sentence-completion questions using words from previous SAT vocabulary lists (Ab-Am & Am-As). Make sure that the sentence you compose includes a clear context clue to suggest the correct choice; circle the context clue(s). All five of your answer choices should be from the same part of speech.

Example:

Not only did his colleagues shower him with praise for his innovative landscape design, but he also received _____ in the form of the Aga Khan Award for Architecture.

(A) adulteration

(B) alacrity

(C) apotheosis

(D) anathema

(E) approbation
