

Personal Narrative Assessment

You are a sophomore, a word that in its etymological makeup suggests conflict. Compose a personal narrative in which you reveal how you as an individual are battling internally between maturity and childishness. Use anecdotes, narrative devices, and descriptive detail to illustrate your central idea.