

Pygmalion pre-reading

Agree or disagree with the following statements about issues of language and appearance. Be ready to explain why.

The way in which a person speaks
determines his or her success in life.

The deeper a person's Southern accent the less intelligent the person appears.

A person's clothes and appearance are more important than what he or she knows.

Substance is more
crucial than style.