

SETTING IN LITERATURE

more than just time and place

all the elements that contribute to the characters' environment

geography AND physical location time period AND time of day weather and atmosphere

culture

social and economic class familial and social relationships gender roles

education

religion and moral standards politics and government occupations